10.ASENATH BOOHER 7.JACOB BOOHER 1.PETER BOOHER

Asenath Booher, a daughter of Jacob and Nancy (McCune) Booher, was born in Ritchie County W. Va. 1842 and died May 24, 1927. She married William Zinn Norman in Calhoun County VA (WV) September 22, 1860.

William, a son of James Nedley and Catherine (Summers) Norman, was born in VA about 1839 and died in the fall of 1862 at Brown's Gap, VA. William was a member the 11th W.Va. Volunteer Infantry and was captured by Confederate forces at Spencer, WV September 2, 1862. He was taken under guard to Brown's Gap, VA, where he was shot by Confederate forces after refusing to bear arms for the Confederacy. This incident is detailed in a February 9, 1892, by Millard W. Haicks, also known as M.W. Heix. An exhaustive treatment of Asenath's pension application by Timothy C. Miller is available at <http://www.abstarcher.com/asenethpension.com.htm>

Asenath was apparently pregnant when she was married. Her first child, Thomas Jackson Starcher, was born in December 1860. His father was Thomas Starcher, a son of Adam and Phoebe (Coger) Starcher. Thomas was born about 1832 and is believed to have died in the Civil War after June 17, 1864.

Asenath was listed as a widow in the 1870 Calhoun County WV census. She had three children living with her. She apparently had two more children.
